Introduction

Many people who start as Agel Team Members haven't been in business before. The tax rules and National Insurance regulations can appear quite frightening. But the costs of retaining an Accountant to help you may be equally frightening.

That is why the Helpline Service helps to keep your accounting costs to a minimum. You only pay for what you want and what you can afford.

This new system works best for distributors who use the Add-Up Accounting Book.

Armed with the guidance you'll get, you should be able to keep your books and records in good order and complete the skeleton of your annual accounts for us to review. After our review we will then be able to complete your Self-Assessment Tax Return and send it to you to sign and forward to HM Revenue & Customs to agree your tax position for each year.

What does the Helpline service include?

The Helpline Service includes:

-  Clear guidance - to help you use the Add-Up accounting system and prepare your own annual accounts.
-  A skeleton form of annual accounts - for you to slot in your figures at the end of your financial year.
-  Preparation of your tax computations - so you can comply with the self-assessment tax rules.
-  Preparation of your Self-Assessment Tax Returns - to comply with Inland Revenue requirements. Advice on how to maximise your tax relief.
-  Access to our database of Information Publications - designed to make life easier for busy owner-managers.
-  Better Business Focus - a free copy of the unique monthly Better Business Focus publication is available on our website. It's jam-packed with articles on marketing, selling, business-building, motivating, leadership, management and many other key skills to make your business really fly.

And of course, as you'd expect, all of your personal tax and financial details are treated in the strictest confidence.

What does the Helpline service cost?

The Standard Helpline Service costs £275 a year, inclusive of VAT at 17.5% if you let us have your information before 31 August 2010. After that date the service costs £325 (see www.network-marketing.uk.com for further details)

The Premium Helpline Service costs £425 a year, inclusive of VAT at 17.5% if you let us have your information before 31 August 2010. After that date the service costs £500 (see www.network-marketing.uk.com for further details)

Add-Up Accounting Book

Subscribers to the Helpline Service are given the Add-Up Accounting Book system, free of charge as part of this publication.

Subscribing to this service

Subscribing to the service couldn't be easier. All you have to do is to:

-  Complete the Registration Form (the next page that follows).
-  Write out a cheque for our charges.
-  Complete the personal information details form (included with this publication).
-  Visual/Identification documents - Original Passport or Photo driving licence and an utility bill showing your current address (re: Money Laundering Act - 1 March 2004)

... and post the lot to us.

Once we have reviewed your details, we will take the necessary copies and return the originals to you, together with our standard engagement letter for you to complete - don't worry. All the information you'll need will be ready to hand - especially if you've used the Add-Up Accounting Book.

Amnesty Accounts

Some subscribers may not have filed accounts with the Inland Revenue or may have no accounting information available for previous years.

If you are in this position then we can help you by negotiating on your behalf with "Amnesty Accounts" to try to persuade the Inland Revenue that no profits arose for those earlier years and also that you will not be entitled to any tax relief for the early losses which you may have suffered - please enquire about our fees for this work if you need Amnesty Accounts.

GUIDANCE FOR USING THE ADD UP ACCOUNTING BOOK

PAYMENTS

- 1) The Add Up Book is separated into individual spreadsheets labeled Month 1 to Month 12 on tabs at the bottom of your screen. You need to rename Month 1 as the first month you began trading i.e. April 2009, and so on.
- 2) The top part of the spreadsheet is named 'Payments'. In here you should record all your purchases, noting the Date, Supplier, Total spent and then analyse the purchase by placing it under the relevant column representing what the purchase was for. Please see attached EXAMPLE spreadsheet detailing this for month July.
- 3) You should record ALL products purchased from Agel whether you have resold them or not. You must then note the amount that you used for Personal use and for Sample/Demonstration use. Please see attached EXAMPLE spreadsheet detailing this for month July.

RECEIPTS

- 1) The next section is titled 'Receipts' and here you should record all Sales, detailing Date, Customer Name, Total and analyse it as to whether it was a Product sold at Wholesale (cost price to you) or Retail (30% mark up). You also record your Bonus Receipts in here.

AGEL MILEAGE

- 1) In this section, you will need to record mileage for Agel business trips/meetings etc. This information will be used to calculate your mileage for tax allowable motor expenses.

It would be beneficial for you to keep as many receipts, invoices, sales dockets as possible for your records and to back up the accounting information you have supplied. At the end of your financial year please make a note of the amount of stock you have.

Upon registration with PRB, you can choose either a manual Add Up Accounting Book as described above or an Excel Spreadsheet format of the Add Up Accounting Book.

When you have completed your spreadsheets please forward them to us -

By post to Mr C Whitley-Jones, PRB Accountants LLP, Kingfisher House, Hurstwood Grange, Hurstwood Lane, Haywards Heath, West Sussex, RH17 7QX

Or Email spreadsheets to: cwhitley-jones@prbmp.com or cbrooker@prbmp.com

Please note that the deadline for filing your Self Assessment return for the tax year 6th April 2009 to 5th April 2010 is 31st January 2011.

Please appreciate that late submission of your records may mean late filing – for which you may be fined!

The quicker you file your return with the HM Revenue and Customs, the quicker you could receive your tax relief!

2 What this authority means

• For matters other than VAT or Tax Credits

We will start sending letters and forms to your agent and give them access to your account information online. Sometimes we need to correspond with you as well as, or instead of, your agent.

For example, the latest information on what SA forms we send automatically can be found on our website, go to www.hmrc.gov.uk/sa/agentlist.htm or phone the SA Helpdesk on 0845 9 000 444.

You will not receive your Self Assessment Statements of Account if you authorise your agent to receive them instead, but paying any amount due is your responsibility.

We do not send National Insurance statements and requests for payment to your agent unless you have asked us if you can defer payment.

• For VAT and Tax Credits

We will continue to send correspondence to you rather than to your agent but we can deal with your agent in writing or by phone on specific matters. If your agent is able to submit VAT returns online on your behalf, you will need to authorise them to do so through our website. For joint Tax Credit claims, we need both claimants to sign this authority to enable HM Revenue & Customs to deal with your agent.

We hold information for the purposes specified in our notification to the Information Commissioner, including the assessment and collection of tax and duties, the payment of benefits and the prevention and detection of crime, and may use this information for any of them. We may get information about you from others, or we may give information to them. If we do, it will only be as the law permits.

We may check information we receive about you with what is already in our records. This can include information provided by you, as well as by others, such as other government departments or agencies and overseas tax and customs authorities. We will not give information to anyone outside HM Revenue & Customs unless the law permits us to do so.

This authority does not allow your agent to request personal information held about you under the subject access provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998.

Introduction

This form is intended for self-employed people with small earnings and the guidance notes should give you enough information to help you make a decision about applying for a Certificate of Small Earnings Exception.

If, after reading the guidance, you decide you want to apply for a certificate, please fill in the attached application form.

If you need more information phone the Self Employed Helpline on 0845 915 4655, or go to www.hmrc.gov.uk/selfemployed

Why pay Class 2 contributions?

Class 2 contributions count towards:

- Incapacity Benefit/Employment and Support Allowance
- basic State Pension
- bereavement benefits
- Maternity Allowance.

If you are only liable for Class 2 contributions, you should consider your position carefully before applying for a Certificate of Small Earnings Exception.

If you apply for and are granted exception from National Insurance contributions, you may lose your entitlement to benefits by not paying Class 2 contributions.

For example, if you do not pay contributions for any period, your basic State Pension may be affected. If you leave a widow, widower or civil partner he or she may get a reduced rate of benefit or no benefit at all.

Even if you receive a Certificate of Small Earnings Exception, you can still pay Class 2 contributions voluntarily to keep your entitlement to some benefits.

If you want to pay Class 2 contributions voluntarily, tell us at part 14 on the attached application form or return your Certificate of Small Earnings Exception with item 1 completed.

Who pays Class 2 contributions?

If you are aged 16 or over and self-employed you must pay Class 2 contributions, currently £2.40 per week, unless:

- you are over State Pension age, currently 65 for a man and 60 for a woman, even if you have not retired, or
- you are entitled to reduced contribution liability as a married woman or widow, or
- you have applied for and been given a Certificate of Small Earnings Exception for the period concerned.

Contributions paid on time will be payable at the rate in force at the time the contributions were due. If you pay Class 2 contributions more than a year late you may have to pay them at a higher rate, which is the highest rate in force between the date the contributions were due and the date you pay them.

Self-employed in your spare time

You have to pay Class 2 contributions if you are self-employed in your spare time. This applies even if you are also paying Class 1 earnings related contributions as an employee, or office holder. But you do not have to pay Class 2 contributions if you apply for and are granted a Certificate of Small Earnings Exception.

Self-employed and claiming Jobseeker's Allowance

If you are self-employed and get Jobseeker's Allowance (JSA) you may be awarded JSA credits but you remain liable for Class 2 contributions.

But, if your earnings from self-employment are below the small earnings exception level you can apply for a Certificate of Small Earnings Exception. If awarded, you need not pay Class 2 contributions.

Special circumstances

Men reaching or over age 60

If your earnings are low and you are aged 60 or over, or will reach that age between 6 April 2009 and 5 April 2010, it may be worthwhile applying for a Certificate of Small Earnings Exception.

If you are granted exception in these circumstances, you will be given contribution credits automatically to protect your basic State Pension and other benefits. But credits cannot be given if you spend more than 182 days abroad within a year.

Caring for someone - Home Responsibilities Protection / Carer's Credit (from 6 April 2010)

Home Responsibilities Protection (HRP) can help to protect your basic State Pension and your spouse or civil partner's right to bereavement benefits if you:

- do not work, or
- your earnings are not enough to count for basic State Pension.

HRP will no longer be available for tax years that commence on or after 6 April 2010. This will be replaced by new crediting arrangements that will enable customers qualifying to build up entitlement to basic State Pension and State Second Pension by receiving weekly National Insurance Credits. For further information, please go to www.thepensionservice.gov.uk

Small earnings

Do I have small earnings?

You will be classed as having small earnings and may not have to pay Class 2 contributions if your earnings, that is money left after expenses:

- were less than £4,825 for the period from 6 April 2008 to 5 April 2009 and/or
- are expected to be less than £5,075 in the tax year period from 6 April 2009 to 5 April 2010.

Working out your earnings

Your right to a Certificate of Small Earnings Exception depends on your total net earnings from self-employment as shown, for example, on a profit and loss account.

You cannot apply for small earnings exception if your earnings from self-employment during the period from 6 April 2009 to 5 April 2010 have already reached £5,075 by the time you apply for exception.

If you are self-employed in more than one business, you should add together the net earnings from each so that a loss incurred in one may be offset against a profit in another.

Do not count as earnings any income from the New Deal scheme or from sources other than self-employment.

To work out your total net earnings, deduct from gross earnings any business expenses you incurred whilst self-employed. For example, you can deduct rent and rates, insurance, employees' wages, printing and stationery, repairs and postage. You should also make an allowance for depreciation of equipment such as a vehicle if it is used for your business.

You should not make deductions for any of your own drawings, income tax payments or for Class 2 or Class 4 contributions payable.

You should account for the amount or value of any stock you withdraw from your business for your own use.

Where you also have earnings from employed earner's employment in the same year and those earnings are shown in the accounts of the business as a business receipt, those earnings can be disregarded when calculating the profits from your self-employed business.

After receiving your estimate of what you are likely to earn during the period from 6 April 2009 to 5 April 2010, we may take into account your earnings during earlier years and any changes that have occurred since.

How to apply for Small Earnings Exception

Fill in the attached application form and send it to:

HM Revenue & Customs
National Insurance Contributions Office
Self Employment Services
Benton Park View
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE98 1ZZ.

When to apply

If you can show that your net earnings from self-employment for the period from 6 April 2009 to 5 April 2010 are expected to be less than £5,075, you will not have to pay Class 2 contributions. You can apply for exception as soon as possible.

Your Certificate of Small Earnings Exception

If your application is approved, we will send you a Certificate of Small Earnings Exception. The certificate will show the period it covers and will normally end in April at the end of the tax year. The certificate will usually be effective from the date of your application although it may be backdated for up to 13 weeks. It cannot be issued to cover any week that you have already paid a Class 2 contribution.

But, you may be able to get a refund of the contributions you have already paid - see Getting a refund.

As a certificate can only be backdated up to 13 weeks, you will remain liable for payment of Class 2 contributions for any period of low earnings not covered by the certificate. We may decide not to insist on the payment of Class 2 contributions that were due before the start of the certificate if your self-employed earnings were below the exception limit for the year (6 April to 5 April) concerned. We will let you know if this applies to you.

If you make a renewal application and your earnings are still low enough you will be sent a new certificate.

Getting a refund

It is possible to get a refund of Class 2 contributions paid during a period of small earnings, although you may not have applied to be excepted from liability at the proper time. For example, if your net self-employed income (that is your profit after deducting expenses) earned in the period 6 April 2008 to 5 April 2009 was less than £4,825. You should consider the effect on future benefit entitlement before applying for a refund of Class 2 contributions.

How to apply

If you think you are entitled to a refund, you not your agent, need to send us:

- a signed letter stating that you want a refund, and
- proof of earnings for the relevant tax year, for example
 - business receipts
 - profit and loss accounts
 - some other form of evidence that shows your income.

Form CF10 which is attached to this form, is not an application for a refund.

Do not delay writing to us as proof can be sent later.

The address to write to is:

HM Revenue & Customs
National Insurance Contributions Office
Self Employment Services
Benton Park View
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE98 1ZZ.

Time limits

There are strict time limits for refunds.

You must apply no later than the 31 January following the end of the tax year (6 April to 5 April) in question.

For example, a refund of Class 2 contributions paid for the period 6 April 2008 to 5 April 2009 must be claimed after 5 April 2009 but before 31 January 2010.

If you are employed and self-employed

The law requires that you meet all National Insurance liabilities as an employee in all of your employments and as a self-employed person.

If you work for an employer as well as being self-employed, you may be allowed to delay paying some of your Class 2 and / or Class 4 contributions. This is called 'deferment'. You should only apply for deferment if your net self-employed earnings are expected to be above the small earnings exception level of £5,075.

If you expect your self-employed earnings to be less than £5,075 deferment is not applicable and you may qualify for Small Earnings Exception (SEE). You will need to apply for SEE. Please complete the attached application form and send it to the address given above.

To find out about deferring Class 2 and / or Class 4 contributions, please contact Deferment Services on 0845 915 7141.
